

	Our company attaches great importance to the protection of your data, and treats your personal data with great care, to ensure that privacy and confidentiality are respected. All this, in accordance with the rules of the European regulation GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation). To be fully compliant with this new legislation (in force on 25/05/2018), following steps are taken :
	An up-to-date privacy statement for website and stakeholders is drawn up, and available on www.herfurth-group.com;
	A data register is drawn up, in which the categories of personal data have been listed (relevant legal bases, parties involved, processors, receivers, storage period and security measures);
	All necessary technical and organizational measures in order to protect data privacy have been taken;
	Our company and its respective departments have made agreements with third parties who process personal data for us;
	Privacy awareness documents as well as internal privacy policies for our employees are drawn up;
	In case of a transfer to third countries, it is part of a concluded agreement and/or legal obligation, or appropriate measures have been taken;
	GDPR-responsible persons who, will monitor GDPR-compliance within our different departments and in general, have been appointed.
	In case you have any questions, please mail to : privacy@sdsbo.com